

Autumn Market

On 29th October 2011, Gaunt Shops saw its first Autumn Market. There was home fudge and toffee, homemade cakes and buns, cards and fresh meats on sale. There was also face painting and the Forum did pumpkin carving which was a big hit. The children of the Playscheme had made Halloween masks and there was a competition for them. The winner of the competition was 12 year old Olivia Hobson.

Congratulations Olivia.

