

Gaunt Shops Christmas Market

The Gaunt Shops Christmas Market ran on the 10th December 2011. Four stallholders turned up and to raised the Christmas spirit. Father Christmas came with three sacks full of presents for the girls and boys of Gleadless Valley.

The choirs from Holy Cross and Gleadless Valley Methodist Church came across to join in with the festive spirits. Terry Allingham joined them with the fabulous sound of the saxophone.

181 Blackstock Road was opened up as Bric a Brac shop, to help raise money for our events.

Santa did an amazing job seeing over 30 children before he had to dash off to help his elves with preparing for the main day of the year.

